Item No. 10 (c)

Alpine Tourist Commission

The Alpine Tourist Commission is a working committee, comprising the European countries that border the Alps. Its purpose is to promote travel by Americans to the European Alpine Region. ATC consists of the following members: Austria, France, Germany, Italy, Monaco, Switzerland and Yugoslavia. Its funds come exclusively from contributions of the member countries. ATC does not have an office of its own as such but can be reached by writing to the chairman, whose address for 1964/65 is:

Mr. Georges Borghini, Director
Monaco Information Center
610 Fifth Ave.
New York City, N.Y.

Item No. 7

During the reporting period, applications for free transportation within Germany were received from various American travel writers, travel editors and travel photographers.

These applications were forwarded by Registrant to Principal in those cases where it was felt that a trip through Germany might result in tourist publicity. Principal then arranged for transportation by rail, bus or automobile and - in the case of transportation to and from West Berlin only - by air.
